Boy Crushed Under Wagon

Marshal Carlson Killed Yesterday Afternoon on Franklin Avenue, in East End.

Marshal Carlson, the 3 1/2-year-old son of Charles Carlson, was run over and killed yesterday afternoon by a team of the Pruet & Cook Transfer Company. The team was driven by Robert Gaston and the unfortunate occurrence took place on Franklin avenue opposite the North Pacific brewery. A number of children were at play at that point when Gaston drove along going westward. His team was hitched to a truck and behind this was a trailer loaded with lumber. Three little girls were on the wagon and as the team passed the boys attempted to climb on the moving wagons, with the result that the little Carlson boy fell under one of the large wheels and was crushed. The wheel passed diagonally across the body below the shoulders. The little fellow had strength to rise and as he staggered toward the sidewalk, was caught by Shelburn Morton, another boy.

Mr. Gaston drove on, telling the other boys present to take the little fellow home. Dr. Finch was summoned, but it was needless, as little Marshal expired in a few minutes.

Mr. Gaston stated last night that he was not aware that the child was fatally or even seriously hurt or else he would have stopped and given it all the attention that lay within his power.

Charles Carlson, father of the child, drives a delivery wagon for George Lindstrom. His residence is on Franklin avenue near where the accident occurred.

WOMEN WILL PAINT THE TOWN.

New York, Sept. 18.—The women of Wallington, N. J., have defied the Painters' and Decorators' Union and have formed a league to paint their own houses. They had difficulty with the unionists over the matter of wages and as a result they have begun a co-operative scheme whereby the town is rapidly acquiring a new coat of colors without the aid of men.
